

FATE OF NEARLY THREE THOUSAND SALOONS IN HANDS OF VOTERS TODAY

Is Most Momentous Local Option Election Ever Held
In State of Illinois

FIGHT IS STATE-WIDE

More Than 300 Townships Including Several Villages Are Directly Interested In Result

BOTH SIDES WORKED HARD

Chicago, April 6.—Both wet and dry forces rested tonight on the eve of the most momentous local option election ever held in Illinois. An election in which many Illinois women will vote for the first time. The fight is state-wide, although the contests are localized in the township elections, usually of little interest. More than three hundred townships, some including several villages or cities, are directly interested in the result of the vote which will be taken tomorrow and the fate of nearly 3,000 saloons will be in the hands of the voters when the polls open.

The campaigns have been earnest in all the districts, but have been centered in the larger cities of the state where the arguments of the anti-saloon forces have been met by assertions that higher taxes and less business in the municipalities would result from voting out the saloons. The anti-saloon forces have enlisted churches, civic clubs and women's organizations in their campaign and in most places have used well defined political methods to bring out the vote.

A house to house canvass of voters has been made and mass meetings, personal letters and heart to heart talks have marked the effort to oust the liquor dealers. The recent enfranchisement of Illinois women is regarded by the anti-saloon leaders as their greatest hope of victory. Their estimates in nearly every township have been that at least 75 percent of the woman's vote would be against the saloons. These claims in many of the cities are disputed by those favoring the liquor dealers.

There are now thirty counties in which liquor selling is not permitted. An attempt to put some of these counties back in the wet column is being made, but the anti-saloon leaders contend that the number of dry counties will be increased instead of being diminished by tomorrow's voting.

Bitter fights have been waged in Springfield, Aurora, Decatur, Joliet, Quincy, Galena, Alton, Bloomington and Rock Island, now licensed cities.

Rockford, now dry, is to decide whether it will remain in the anti-saloon column.

Seven townships in Cook county outside of Chicago will vote tomorrow on the local option question. The wet or dry issue has not been raised in the city this spring although a movement has been started to lay the local option issue before the city voters next year.

Prevent Vote in La Salle.
Ottawa, Ill., April 6.—Charles Craig, justice of the supreme court, issued a writ of supersedeas today preventing a vote on the saloon question in La Salle tomorrow. The writ is a victory for the saloon forces and was the end of a bitter fight.

The wet and dry litigation in La Salle started when John Dillon, town clerk, refused to place on the ballot a proposition to put the town in dry territory. The petition signed by 98 voters, many of them women, Dillon questioned the qualifications of the women to sign and refused to act.

The anti-saloon forces filed a writ of mandamus in the circuit court and the wets took a change of venue to the municipal court at Springfield where Judge Hawthorne ordered the writ issued against Dillon. When W. Pannek, an attorney of La Salle, applied to Supreme Justice Craig for the writ which was issued today. The ruling means that the sixty saloons in La Salle will not be disturbed until the supreme court decides the question involved.

Bloomington Campaign Lively.
Bloomington, Ill., April 6.—The township of the city of Bloomington votes tomorrow on the saloon question. The estimated vote of the women is about 5,000 and it is believed that 4,000 will cast ballots on the question. The campaign here has been very lively and each side has arranged for scores of automobiles in order to assist voters in getting to the polls.

"Wet" and "dry" speakers have been imported and many columns of newspaper space devoted to a discussion of the question.

Bloomington has voted twice on this question, the "wets" winning each election. Bloomington has 78 saloons.

Two Townships Vote.
Danville, Ill., April 6.—Georgetown township containing the mining villages of Westville and Georgetown, will be the scene of the only local option election in Vermillion county tomorrow. The city of Dan-

FEAR TROUBLE AT POLLS.
Springfield, Ill., April 6.—That nearly all of the 125,000 voters of Springfield, over 10,000 of whom are women, will go to the polls tomorrow to vote on the saloon issue is conceded by both sides of the controversy. Tonight both claim victory. Excitement is intense. Fears of trouble at the polls are entertained by election authorities. All available police officers and sheriff's deputies have been called out to guard the polls, and plain clothes men have been imported to "spot" certain persons from other cities who are alleged to have been imported to take part in the election. Fear is entertained that because of the tremendous increase in the number of voters that the election officials will not be able to vote them all in the allotted ten hours.

ville will vote on the question April 21st. There are present forty saloons in Westville and four in Georgetown. The desperate fight waged in Westville by both sides has been overshadowed by the mysterious disappearance last Tuesday evening of the Rev. Louis R. Patmont, of Milwaukee, an anti-saloon league worker among the foreign element of whom not a trace has been secured since. He had complained of having been assaulted, threatened and followed about the village and when last seen by friends here said he had lost his nerve and was highly wrought up for his experiences. They fear he has met with foul play.

Leaves For Chicago.
Springfield, Ill., April 6.—Governor Edward F. Dunne, Mrs. Dunne and the Misses Aileen and Mona Dunne left today for Chicago to vote. The governor made a speech tonight. They will return to Springfield Wednesday.

Elections in Nebraska.
Omaha, Neb., April 6.—Municipal elections in all cities and towns in Nebraska, except Omaha, South Omaha and Lincoln, which operate under special charters will be held tomorrow. In most instances the principal issue is whether or not saloons shall be licensed although in a few larger towns party lines will be drawn.

Printers Have Rush Order.
Try To Interfere With Printing.
Pana, Ill., April 6.—Numerous wholesale arrests were made here tonight where several saloon-keepers tried to interfere with the printing of the ballots for the local option election here tomorrow. The printing was being done at night in order that the ballots would be on hand for the election tomorrow. Around a large printing establishment scores of anti-saloon leaders of the city are standing guard. When several saloon-keepers attempted to break into the print shop a battle followed.

Decatur Will Act.
Decatur, Ill., April 6.—Printers in Pana will work all night in an effort to get out ballots for the local option question by the time the polls open Tuesday morning.

Town Clerk Walter Lester Monday afternoon tendered his resignation to the township board but it was not accepted. Lester maintained that he had followed the exact letter of the law in having ballots prepared with local option omitted. He had the ballots ready and had caused to be printed and posted the necessary notices.

The township board was determined that the saloon question should appear on the ballots and appointed Clerk Lester and Justice George F. Morgan as a committee to visit the printing shops and order the requisite local option ballots. The board shouldered the responsibility and closed a contract with a printer to run off the "wet" and "dry" ballots at the full capacity of his presses, and to turn over the same as fast as they were printed.

Both Sides Claiming Victory.
Quincy, Ill., April 6.—A downpour of rain throughout the day had little effect on the completion of plans for tomorrow's election, the outcome of which is being awaited with more keenness than at any other election that has been held here in many years. In addition to the local option question two other special municipal questions and regular aldermanic and town candidates will be voted upon.

Both the "wets" and "drys" were claiming a victory tonight while the "wets" were given the best backing by those less interested in the outcome. The "dry" leaders contend that the women's vote will prove a surprise and be sufficient to vote out the saloons. Bets were being wagered tonight by the "wets" that there will be as many "wet" women votes as there are "dry."

While there were no outward demonstrations tonight the city is in a state of excitement and the "wet" and "dry" question was being discussed in every quarter. The "drys" closed their campaign Sunday night with a big mass meeting of church members while the "wets" closed their campaign with a meeting in one of the local halls.

Tomorrow will be the first time that the citizens have ever voted on saloons, although they have been in existence here for fifty years. There are 145 of them doing business at present. It is expected that 15,000 votes will be cast, 8,000 by men and 7,000 by women.

Will Vote in Missouri.

LABOR COMMISSION HEARS FOUR WITNESSES

GIVE WIDELY DIVERGENT VIEWS ON METHODS OF SECURING PEACE

Chicago Mine Operator Criticizes Present Trade Agreements Between Illinois Operators and Miners—Wants Operators to Be Allowed to Fix Prices.

Washington, April 6.—Widely divergent views on the benefits of collective bargaining in solving labor disputes with criticism and defense of union labor were given here today before the United States commission on industrial relations at the first of a series of hearings to determine the best method to bring about industrial peace. The witnesses heard were John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America; Frank Peabody of Chicago, a mine operator; Frank J. Hayes, vice-president of the United Mine Workers and O. P. Briggs, of Chicago, former president of the National Founders' association. Mr. Peabody criticized the present trade agreements in force between mine operators and workers in Illinois, saying they were based on artificial conditions and not on the earning capacity of the miners. He advocated the establishment of a board of arbitration decided on between the operators and miners to decide controversies.

Both Mr. Peabody and Mr. Mitchell advocated allowing the operators to combine to fix prices. Mr. Mitchell adding that this should be done under proper government supervision. In the Illinois coal fields seventy five per cent of the coal mines are insolvent at the present time according to Mr. Peabody who declared that the operators did not get along better because they did not organize as well as the miners.

Miners' labor unions were defended by Mr. Hayes who said conditions were much better in the coal fields where the miners are organized.

Appeal to Wilson and Congress.
Terre Haute, Ind., April 6.—Delegates representing 21,000 coal miners of southern Indiana in convention here tonight adopted a resolution calling upon President Wilson and congress to "uphold the constitution of the United States" in behalf of the striking miners of Colorado.

The resolution declared that the mine operators in that state have violated every law of the state, books pertaining to mines and mining, characterizes the governor of Colorado as "spineless" and "either powerless or disinterested" of furnish the miners with protection and asserts that "the corrupt state militia, composed partly of thugs and assassins have trampled upon both the constitutions of the United States and Colorado by the arrest of 'Mother' Jones and keeping her in solitary confinement and also by destroying the tent towns of the miners."

The convention composed of delegates from district eleven of the United Mine Workers met to receive the report of its scale committee on an agreement to be submitted to the operators on Thursday for a new wage scale. This report was not reached owing to spirited debate over the question of remaining at work while negotiations with the operators are in progress.

Committee Re-convenes.
Peoria, Ill., April 6.—The two committee representing the Illinois Mine Workers and the Illinois Operators re-convened here today and were in executive session until late. No announcement was made other than matters progressing satisfactorily and that the sessions would probably continue three weeks before a final agreement is reached.

smaller cities of Missouri but in most of these the campaign has been conducted on local issues with party lines obliterated. Local options will not be held any place in the state as the law provides that the liquor question when voted upon shall be decided at a special election.

Rain Interferes With Campaign.
Decatur, Ill., April 6.—A heavy downpour of rain, continuing all day without cessation, interfered with the closing day of the local wet and dry campaign. Decatur anticipates about 14,000 votes Tuesday if that number can be crowded through in the ten hours in 22 precincts but congestion and a consequent loss of votes is anticipated. The campaign here has been devoid of the usual bitterness and both sides have confined themselves exclusively to the issue, refusing to indulge in personal attacks to any extent. Citizens ticket a combination of dry Democrats and Progressives is making a strong bid against the old Republican organization for township offices and seven places on the board of supervisors.

Predictions are that the city will be voted "dry" if the full women's vote is polled, but the men will poll a wet majority.

Will Vote in Peoria County.
Peoria, Ill., April 6.—Women voters in three townships in Peoria county are expected to decide the fate of 22 saloons at tomorrow's elections. Bartonville in the center of the fight on saloons. In Peoria it is anticipated that 18,000 votes out of a total registration of 30,000 will be cast. Peoria's 300 saloons are not involved in the present struggle.

Passed bill to provide for enlarging the Wall street assay office.

Adjourned at 5:40 p. m. until noon Tuesday.

Washington, April 6.—Publicity for the deliberations on the bill to repeal toll exemption for American ships passing through the Panama canal was determined upon today by the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals which will begin consideration of the controversy in all its aspects. Senator O'Gorman, chairman of the committee decided upon open sessions at the outset after a conference with his colleagues.

Whether hearings are to be held has not been decided, but this will be determined when the house repeal bill and various compromise senate measures are formally taken up. How long the committee will deliberate on the issue before making a report to the senate no one would predict tonight but administration leaders let it be known that any effort to prolong the preliminary consideration would be opposed even to the extreme of moving to discharge the committee from consideration of the subject.

Senator O'Gorman, leading Democratic opponent of the repeal and others who join with him in the fight still insist, however, that there will be no effort to delay in committee. (When the issue reaches the floor of the senate, various forces at work to complicate the situation make it probable that a vote can be reached for several weeks. Senator McCumber, Republican of North Dakota, a member of the foreign relations committee who steadfastly refuses to join the party opposition to President Wilson's policy, addressed the senate at length today in the support of the repeal. He flatly declared toll exemption for American ships was a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and it was against the spirit of the senate when the treaty was ratified. For the congress to insist upon toll exemption for American coast-wise ships, he said, was to hide behind the American flag while burglarizing the treasury for the benefit of "a coast-wise shipping trust."

The senator said he had no concern with the provisions of the Democratic platform; that the question at issue was the honor of the nation. He devoted his address to the two reasons given in the president's message urging repeal, that exemption constituted a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and that it was an economic mistake. Administration senators tonight seemed to be more confident than ever that the house repeal bill would carry in the senate unamended, maintaining that several Democrats who had been classed as doubtful, positively would support the president and that the majority on the final roll call in favor of the repeal would at least be ten votes. Eight or nine Republican senators are now counted on to support the repeal despite efforts of their leaders to unite the minority against the measure.

Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, at the conclusion of Senator McCumber's address today introduced a resolution requesting the president, if not incompatible with the public interest to give the senate all information records and correspondence relating to regulations of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. Senator Brandegee favors the repeal bill.

Inefficient, Expensive Service.

Inefficient and expensive handling of lake and rail traffic, particularly of package freight was urged before the inter-state commerce commission by shippers as a fundamental reason why the railroad rates on such traffic should not be increased. It was asserted by counsel for the shippers' organizations that shipping methods of loading and unloading vessels from and to cars were archaic.

Most of the freight, the testimony showed, is handled by hand trucks instead of modern mechanical devices.

AGENT CAROTHERS ARRIVES IN JUAREZ

BRINGS FIRST NON-PARTISAN EYE-
WITNESS ACCOUNT OF BATTLE

Places Rebel Loss at 600 Killed and 1400 Wounded—Thinks Velasco
Evacuated City Because Men Were Worn Down Until They Could No Longer Fight.

Juarez, Mex., April 6.—George C. Carothers, special representative of the state department, who has been through the Torreón engagement with General Villa, returned here tonight to assist in negotiations looking to the welfare of the six hundred Spaniards ordered out of Torreón by the rebels. He brought with him the first non-partisan eyewitness account of the battle.

Mr. Carothers kept a brief diary of events which he witnessed but he was too greatly fatigued after his trip, which began at Torreón yesterday to give more than a brief outline to reporters.

"The rebel loss," said Mr. Carothers, "was six hundred killed and 1400 wounded. We don't know the federal loss accurately except that Villa found in the hospital 805 of their wounded."

"Asked why Velasco, the federal commander evacuated the city, Mr. Carothers said the federal leader's one excuse was that he had run out of small arm ammunition."

"However," the state department agent smiled, "I think he was mistaken about that, for when he started burning his ammunition we could hear rifle cartridges popping and it seemed to me as if there must have been 2,000,000 of them, more or less."

"I am convinced that the real reason was that Villa's tireless hammering wore down his men until they could no longer fight. They had been on the scantiest of rations of both food and water and were all in, as the phrase has it."

"The evacuation was accomplished in an orderly manner with soldiers and federal refugees loaded on trains, some of which moved out over the Coahuila Pacific railroad and others over the International railroad."

"Villa has 8,000 men pursuing them and while they are supposed to be making for Saltillo their exact whereabouts was not known when I left Torreón."

"At San Pedro there is a federal garrison and a battle is expected there at any moment."

"There can be no doubt that Villa's grievance against many of the Spaniards was well founded. He was very angry at first but with success he has grown more lenient and the innocent, doubtless will be restored to their properties and homes in due time after an investigation."

"They all have money and will not be a charge on the community here."

"Torreón fell on the night of Thursday, April 2nd, as reported by General Villa to General Carranza. Up to that time there was not the faintest basis for reports that the town had fallen. The evacuation began at 7 o'clock on the morning of Thursday and at that time and indeed, until the evacuation was complete, the federal held every position in the city of Torreón that they originally possessed."

"It was not until after the evacuation on Thursday that the rebels permanently occupied any position in the city. Villa attacked repeatedly from the outside. His men would rush into the town, making desperate assaults with their hand grenades, but they never retained a position until after the flight of the federal troops. Fighting continued almost to the last minute."

Mr. Carothers wired a report of his arrival to the state department tonight and will report more fully tomorrow. When General Velasco fled he left placards on his hospitals saying that he left the wounded to the kindness of the five consuls and to the mercy of General Villa.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY PROVED POPULAR

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT AT ALL OF THE CHURCHES.

Members Made Special Effort to Attend and Special Invitations Were Accepted by Many Others—Sermons Were All of Plain and Simple Style Designed to Indicate the Helpful Work the Church Attempts.

"Go to Church Sunday" as observed in Jacksonville, brought large audiences not only to those churches which were direct participants in the movement, but to others as well. Many church members who frequently fail to get to church were there and the "strangers within the gates" were many.

Altogether the pastors and the people felt that the day was a very helpful one and the services in all instances were of a character to do lasting good. The sacred concert by the Jeffries Concert band was a notable feature of the day. Individual notice is made of the services in some of the churches and in others not mentioned the attendance was large and the sermons helpful.

Westminster.

At Westminster church a large audience was present, every member evidently having made a special effort to attend. Rev. L. H. Davis preached from the familiar text: Psalms 122-1, "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." The pastor gave a word of special welcome and then in a logical way pointed to the great worth of the church as an institution and what an aid it is to humanity. In closing he quoted the late Dr. Holmes who instead of asking what is the matter with the church asked instead: "What is Right With the Church?" and then proceeded to answer his own question. "Its influence is right. No church points men away from rectitude. Its standards are right. The highest ideals set before the life of today are raised by the church. Its aims are right. No living man can say with truth 'I walked in the ways of the church and was ruined.' Its hopes are right. It is ever thinking and looking for a brighter day. Its teaching is right. The best life on earth at the present hour is that which most completely practices, what the church declares, as to religion and morality. What is right with the church? Its intelligence, its fearlessness, its output, its open mindedness.

Hospitals, universities, red cross movement, eleemosynary institutions, young men and young women banded in associations, organized charities, big brother movement, boy scout movement, Christiana Endeavor Society, mens missionary movement, Sunday schools and reformatories.

Juvenile courts and settlement work, missionary work in the foreign fields, the religious press, these are some of the great agencies, which have been called forth by the church for meeting the needs of the world.

The conclusion of the whole matter is this, that at the present time needs, not the criticism of anybody for we have had enough for the present but we need the co-operation and personal support of everybody. Standing together, working together, living together with Christ, for the betterment of life and for the betterment of the world we shall then help more speedily to usher in the great kingdom of God among men.

The Congregational Church.

The services at the Congregational church were in charge of the Rev. A. B. Morey, who spoke at the morning service upon the subject of church going. He took his text from the 71st Psalm and pointed out the duty incumbent upon all Christians to encourage the church by attendance and active support. He spoke of the mighty work and great importance of the church as a civilizing force throughout the ages. Dr. R. O. Post was present with a greeting to the congregation. He assured them of his appreciation for their kindness and solicitude during his illness and expressed the hope that his full health and power would be soon regained. The attendance at Sunday school was 65 and at the morning church service, 110. There have been no evening services during Dr. Post's illness.

Decision Day at Grace M. E.

"Go-to-Church" Sunday was also Decision day at Grace M. E. church and the pastor was happy to report a total of twenty-five additions to the church membership. There were 260 present at the Sunday school and 609 at the morning service. The 201 at the evening service brought the total to 1,170.

The Unsearchable Riches of Christ" was the sermon subject of Rev. J. W. Miller, in the morning. At the beginning of his discourse he paid a tribute to the church of the twentieth century, describing it as having a wider mission and more enlarged field of activity than the church of the age previous. He spoke of the church, great responsibility in meeting the problems brought about by modern social conditions. In the evening Rev. Mr. Miller spoke on the "Finished Work of Christ." It was not a note of surrender but a cry of victory that was uttered by the dying Christ when the words, "It is finished" were heard from the cross. It was not a cry inspired by fear of death or pain. With prehistoric vision the Christ saw the import of the work that He finished through all succeeding ages and in his death-cry was mingled a sentiment of exultation and victory.

Miss Fern Hartsuck of the Woman's college sang "The Palms" as a solo at the morning service and the quartet sang, "There's a Green Hill Far Away" Lu Gounod and "The Savior of the World." Goss. At night the chorus choir gave "Is It Nothing to You" and "Jerusalem" by Parker. Three organ numbers were given by D. M. Swarthout during the evening and morning services.

At Northminster Church. Northminster stood second in attendance with a grand total of over 1,200, about 300 less than Central Christian, which ranked first. Rev. Mr. Spoonst spoke in the morning on "The White Life" taking as his text, Psalms 119-9. He cited Absalom as an example of one who wasted his life and depicted the grief of David over the loss of his erring son. He spoke of the bright prospects of those who lead a life of purity and obedience to law. "To be, not to seem," was the subject of Rev. Mr. Spoonst at the evening service. Basing his remarks upon the significance of the trilling inscription on the cross of Christ, the speaker compared the ideals of Greece, Rome and Palestine. The Greek sought always "to know," the Latin wished at all times "to have" and the Hebrew played "to be." It is the Hebrew ideal of the desire to be that we of America should follow. "Make Your Home in Palestine."

At State Street Presbyterian church there was a splendid audience, practically all of the members being in their pews with a goodly number of visitors. The pastor, Rev. Howard D. French took for his text, Matthew 5-6, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled." Mr. French expressed his pleasure in meeting with so large an audience and told of the good effect in some other cities of the "Go To Church Movement" and expressed the hope that like benefits might be realized in this city. In his discourse he emphasized how much the church does for society and how its means of grace. The church in his opinion is a means to an end and while it has not yet attained all that is desirable and that can be done yet those who are really in earnest in their church membership find in it real comfort and help for daily living and find that it does much to satisfy their hunger and thirst after that which is right and good.

Centenary.

At Centenary church the audience was of such large proportions that not only the pastor, Rev. G. W. Flagg was gratified but likewise all of the committees which had any part in arranging for the service. Mr. Flagg's text was Psalms, 24-7 "Lift up your heads O ye gates; and be ye lifted up ye everlasting doors; and the king of glory shall come in." Rev. Mr. Flagg told the story of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and made the point that he was given the freedom of the city by the people themselves. He made the point that only where Christ is given freedom and subsequently allowed to reign is there stability of good. To all republics save those now in existence came decadence and they drifted to the monarchial form of government because of evil and the only reason that the republics of today continue to live is because they have recognized Christ. The minister laid special emphasis on what the church has done and is doing for all humanity by the spreading of Christian teachings.

Central Christian.

There were 1507 persons in attendance at Central Christian church at the Sunday school, morning and evening services. This total does not include the Christian Endeavor meeting at which there were about 75 present. For the three services mentioned the numbers were Sunday school, 442; morning, 675 and evening 390. Central Christian church had the largest attendance of any church in the city.

"Honoring the Lord" was the subject of Rev. Clyde Darsie in his morning sermon. The speaker mentioned the fitness of holding "Go-to-Church" Sunday on the anniversary of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Among important ways of honoring the Lord are church attendance and Sunday observance. The pastor drew lessons from the meeting of Christ with the woman of Samaria and the incident of the woman and the alabaster box. He concluded with a plea for first attention to the things of the spirit.

Rev. Mr. Darsie spoke in the evening upon the plight of the unrepresented. Among the classes which have no one to speak for them in the halls of legislation or defend their rights in the every-day walks of life are the sick, the immigrant and the criminal. Politicians will not stand up for the rights of the unrepresented. There is a case up to the Christian people of the land. They should follow the Master and make their own the cause of the weak and down-trodden.

Brooklyn M. E. Church.

"Go to Church" Sunday was fittingly observed at Brooklyn M. E. church, large crowds being in attendance at both the morning and evening sessions. In the morning special music had been provided and the Sacrament of the Lord's supper was observed. The church used for the first time the individual communion sets, which was the gift from the Ladies' class of the Sunday school. The presentation of the set was made by Mrs. J. H. Reid. Rev. W. W. Theobald preached in the morning from the subject, "The Kingly Christ," and his text was Matt. 21-5, "Behold thy King cometh unto thee." Three were received into the church.

In the evening the pastor took for his subject "The Exalted Christ," his text being Phil. 2-9-10, "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him and given him a name above

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends Indigestion, Gas, Dyspepsia and Stomach Misery in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food or having a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach, headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspepsia, trouble of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. CIVIC LEAGUE ARRANGES FOR MEETINGS IN WARDS

Plans Gatherings for Discussion of New School Law—Clean-up Campaign Will Be Topic Also at First and Third Ward Meetings.

The new school law and the abrogation of part of the special Jacksonville charter will be the main theme of discussion at meetings which are being arranged by the Civic league to take place in each of the wards. In the first and third wards the meetings have been arranged for 3:30 Wednesday afternoon at the respective school buildings. Any voter of the city is invited to be present at these gatherings, but attendance is especially urged upon the women in their own ward. The women are interested in all that pertains to the public schools and it is hoped that they give due attention to this issue which so vitally concerns them and upon which it is so necessary that they vote intelligently. Speakers will be provided who can present the question from widely different viewpoints and an attempt will be made to apply to local conditions the best thought of the educators of the state.

A special to the Chicago Tribune said:

"Pensacola, Fla., April 5.—Mr. Charles B. Lewis, a millionaire of Jacksonville, Ill., and Miss Mabel Enyart of Goshen, Ind., who had been visiting a friend for several weeks, have been married here. The bridegroom is 75 years old, while the bride is just rounding 18."

"Prior to meeting Miss Enyart Major Lewis, who is a widower with a winter home in Pensacola, made it known that he would endow any one with $100,000 in her own right if she would marry him and that the girl would come into possession of all of his property at his death."

Lutheran Church.

Five young people were confirmed at the "Go to Church" services held at the Salem Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. J. G. Kuppier, preached an appropriate sermon for the occasion and part of the music consisted of a solo—"Heavenly Gates" by Mrs. Robert L. Stice. Those confirmed were Clarence German, Floyd Elbert, Marie Koeping, Marie Wahl and Lottie Wahl.

There was a good response to the roll call held in the evening and the entire day was one of spiritual uplift.

First Baptist Church.

Rev. L. H. Williams of Alton preached two splendid sermons before large audiences Sunday morning and evening at the First Baptist church. "A Church in Service" was the subject of the morning discourse, and in the evening "John, the Disciple that Jesus Loved." At the morning service Mrs. Thomas Harber sang a solo and in the evening Miss Minnie Hoffman gave a violin solo and there was a special quartet number by Misses Hazel Belle Long, Frances Kolp, James Guyette and William Kirby.

BOARD DECIDES TO EMPLOY

EXPERT HEATING ENGINEER

Will Have Man Go Over Heating Plans for New Eighth Grade Building and Make Recommendations.

After taking up most of the time of the regular meeting Monday evening with a discussion of the heating plans for the new eighth grade building, the board of education decided to employ an expert engineer to go over the heating plans for the building and make his recommendations to the board. Other minor matters were disposed of and adjournment was taken, subject to the call of the president.

The minutes of the last regular and special meetings were read and approved and the clerk read a communication from Clarence W. Buckingham, architect for the new building, in which he made objection to the plans for heating the new building, as submitted by the Jacksonville Plumbing & Heating company.

The communication contained an assertion, purported to have been made by Mr. Brown of the Jacksonville Heating & Plumbing company and which Mr. Buckingham said could be proven by four witnesses. The statement follows: "We got the plumbing through the way we wanted it, we have the board with us and we do not care whether you O. K. the plans or not." Mr. Brown denied making such a statement.

The communication was received and placed on file.

Miss Olmstead, the visiting nurse, was present and brought up the matter of printing that was needed to carry on her work in the schools. She stated that physical record blanks and literature were necessary and on motion of Member Hall she was instructed to arrange for the necessary printing and supplies and have the bill sent to the board.

On the suggestion of Member Hall the architect then took up the heating plans and showed the members where he thought they were deficient. After some informal discussion President Davis stated that he was of the opinion that the board was working at cross purposes, that the contractors and architect did not seem to be able to get together and he believed that an engineer should be employed to go over the plans.

Member Hall said he thought the architect should mark where the radiators should be placed on the plan and get an engineer to go over it and Member Wells stated that he wanted to know whether the plant would heat the building before he would vote to put it in. On motion of Member Hall President Davis appointed a committee to secure the services of a competent engineer to go over the heating in detail with the architect and make his recommendations. A clause that in the meantime the architect and heating company should prepare plans and let the expert decide which is right, was later added to the motion. President Davis appointed Members Hall, Rogerson and Wells as members of the committee. All properly approved claims were ordered paid.

The reports of Treasurer Farrell and Superintendent Gore were received and placed on file. Treasurer Farrell's report showed a balance of $2,632.93 in the general fund and $23,011.11 in the building and repair special fund.

On motion of Member Hall Mrs. Ida Smith was named a general teacher for the remainder of the term at a salary of $50 per month. Member Wells brought up the matter of insurance on the new building and the clerk was instructed to make a list of responsible insurance firms in the city and let the members of the board pro-rate it among them.

The architect was instructed to change the specifications for hardware for the new building, so as to include several representative firms and not one, which tended to exclude competition.

On motion of Member Hall the extra work and allowances made by the board were incorporated in the records.

William A. Bartlett was present to ask about lightning rods for the new building and he was instructed to submit his proposition in writing and present it to the board.

President Davis brought up the matter of a tax levy ordinance and certificate and said that he would prepare one for consideration in the near future. The board then adjourned subject to the call of the president.

is designed by a man who believes in super-strength. He has learned this need through 27 years of car building.

In this 35-horsepower car, every driving part is made to meet the requirements of a 50-horsepower engine. And every test goes far beyond the usual requirements.

FOR INSTANCE

For years we have kept test chassis on the road. Relays of drivers have run them at high speed night and day. After 10,000 miles of this reckless driving we take the car apart and inspect it.

Not only must the chassis stand that test, but every vital part must stay new. It must show but little evidence of wear.

We could build this car for one-fourth less by just skimping the hidden parts. Under normal conditions it might for a time serve you as well as this. But it could not stay new. And it might cost you hundreds of extra dollars in troubles, repairs and upkeep.

DOES IT PAY?

It pays us to give you the utmost in a car. We have in this way held the lead in our class. The demand for such cars has grown and grown, faster than we could supply it.

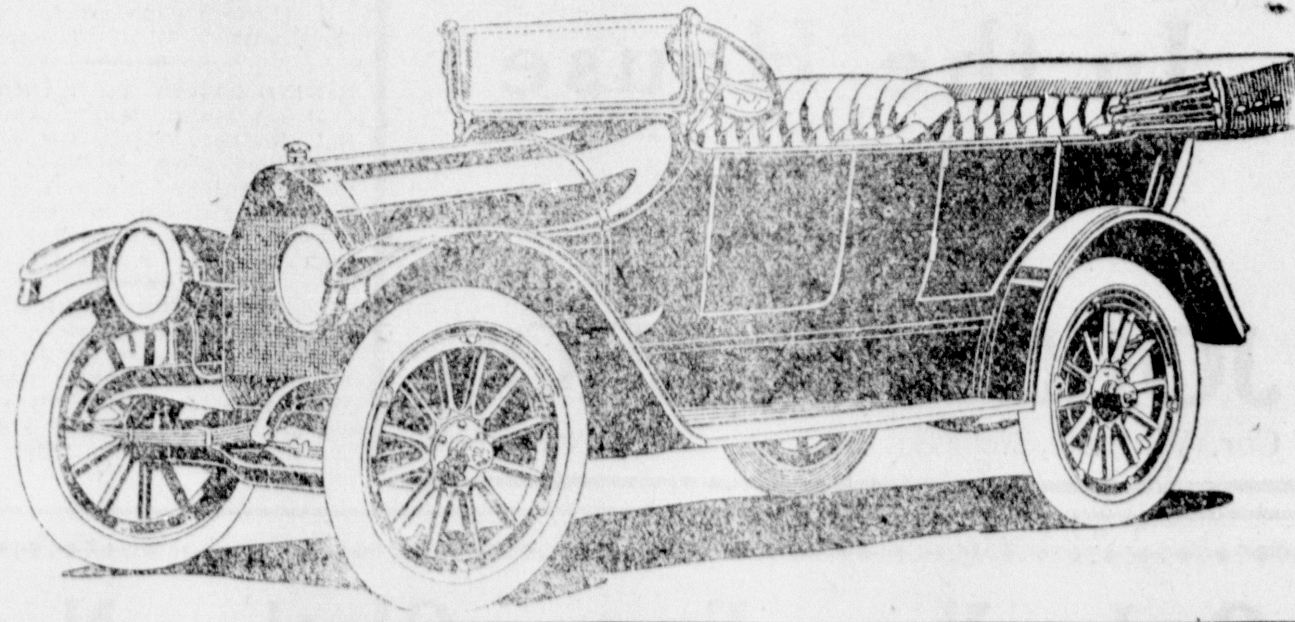

We are building for the future—for what men will say five years after buying the car. It also pays owners to buy such a car, when they buy a car to keep.

PLAN TO OBSERVE ROAD DAY MEETS WITH FAVOR

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF HIGHWAYS HOPES FOR GREAT ACTIVITY.

Village Boards Announce That They Are Ready to Co-operate in Having Needed Work Done—General Sentiment is That Governor's Request is Important to Permanent Cause of Road Betterment.

The plan to drag the dirt roads of the county on Good Roads Day, April 15, upon which the Morgan County Association of Road Commissioners and Clerks and the Department of Rural Affairs of the Chamber of Commerce of Jacksonville are co-operating, is receiving the hearty commendation of many citizens. At first it looks like a very large task but when one considers that the dragging of so many roads can be easily done by the united efforts of many men dragging but a few miles it becomes a matter of many men co-operating in a small way to accomplish a large task. The dragging of all the roads would be a very great benefit to them and would also demonstrate how easily big things can be accomplished by co-operation and utility of action. The great problems which confront the people of this community can and must be solved by co-operation, can be worked out only through the united efforts of the people of the towns and country side. Great as would be the benefits to the roads by the success of the plan to drag all of them on Good Roads Day, much greater and more important would be the lesson of doing of big things by co-operation—the demonstration of the ease of accomplishing much when every one lends a hand.

The new county official under the Tice road law is greatly interested in the plan. He says:

"One of the strong points in the Tice road law is that it will secure uniformity of action as to the roads of Illinois. Under it a uniform system of improvement of dirt and hard roads and of the erection of bridges is planned. It means harmony and community of action among and between road officers, road districts, counties and the state highway department."

Governor Dunne has designated April 15th as Good Roads Day for Illinois. It is fitting and proper that Morgan county should make some effort to observe this day. The Morgan County Association of Road Commissioners and Clerks and the Department of Rural Affairs of the Chamber of Commerce of Jacksonville are endeavoring to perfect plans to drag all the dirt roads in the county, especially the State Aid Roads on Good Roads Day.

"As county superintendent of highways I heartily endorse these plans and earnestly hope that the highway commissioners and the road officers of all the cities and villages of the county will make every effort to drag all the roads under their control on that day and especially to drag all the State Aid Roads. The dragging of the 180 miles of State Aid Roads or better still of the 1000 miles of main roads in Morgan county will establish a much needed co-operation as to road improvement in this county and will demonstrate our determination to 'Pull Morgan County Out of the Mud.'"

L. V. Baldwin,
County Superintendent of Highways.

Village Boards Will Help.
Those in charge of the matter are interviewing the town and road officials as to the roads under their control. Wm. Newman, City Commissioner of Jacksonville in charge of streets and alleys says: "We will drag on Good Roads Day every street in Jacksonville leading from the pavements to the country roads entering Jacksonville."

O. B. Heinl, chairman of the Streets and Alleys committee of the village board of South Jacksonville says: "We will drag all the roads in South Jacksonville on Good Roads Day."

Murrayville has a large number of "good roads fans" among them is J. L. Wyatt, president of the village board and he most emphatically promises that the roads of Murrayville will be dragged on Good Roads Day.

The citizens of Waverly are alive to municipal betterment and have under way plans to observe the 15th and Good Roads and Clean-up Day. Mayor Wm. R. Turnbull says they will have matters well in hand and will drag their roads and hopes that the entire county will observe that the village of Franklin can all ways be depended upon to do its part in public matters. Wm. Whalen, president of the village board expresses himself as being very glad to help along a county-wide effort to drag the roads and will see to it that the roads in Franklin are put in the best condition on Good Roads Day.

The village of Chapin is the center of a community which is second to none in dragging its roads. Dr. J. H. Fountain, president of the village board of Chapin, says that Chapin can be depended upon to drag her roads on Good Roads Day.

Other road and village officials are being communicated with and it is hoped that county-wide effort will be made to "Pull Morgan County Out of the Mud."

MRS. JOSEPH L. CAPPS ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS

Succumbs After Long Illness Sunday at Family Residence on North Church Street—Funeral Today.

Mrs. Joseph L. Capps, who has been seriously ill for a long time, passed away Sunday morning at the family residence, 823 North Church street. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence in charge of Dr. J. W. Miller.

Her maiden name was Ella Tandy, daughter of George W. and Katherine E. Tandy and she was born one-half mile north of the city Oct. 18, 1853. The family moved in March, 1870, to Macon county and there resided until the death of Mrs. Capps' mother in Nov. 28, 1905.

On May 16, 1876, she was married to Joseph L. Capps and four children were born to this union, Herbert J. and Leland A. surviving. Clarence Eugene and Warren Wilfred, deceased. Besides the sons and husband she also leaves her father, one sister, Mrs. Mary Parks of Webster City, Iowa, and two brothers, Fred D. of Oakland, Calif., and Charles E. of Decatur; also two grandchildren, Margaret Virginia and Herbert Joseph, Jr. Two brothers preceded her in death, Newton and Willis Tandy.

Mrs. Capps united with the Methodist church when 17 years of age, under the pastorate of Reuben Gregg, and has ever been identified with church work.

In 1896 Mrs. Capps conceived the idea of forming a society to help Passavant hospital by sewing. Accordingly in the parlors of her home the society of twelve charter members was formed, all of whom resided on Church street north of the railroad. The name of the society was "The North Church Street Sewing and Aid Society."

The first meeting was held with Mrs. Capps. Mrs. Josephine Pyatt was first president and Mrs. Capps served as president 1898, 1899, 1900, as vice president 1902 and 1903—seven years service to the society as an officer. In 1910 she was asked to serve again as president, but owing to ill health was unable to do so.

Mrs. Capps will be sorely missed. She was a loving, tender hearted wife and mother and a kind friend to every one who knew her.

An Appreciation.

The following appreciation was written by Mrs. Martha Capps Oliver: Sunday morning, April 5th, after a full rounded life of love and service, Mrs. Joseph L. Capps went to her crowning.

It is not as a tardy offering, but as the natural expression of long years of companionship that we now break our alabaster boxes of friendship and pour forth for her precious ointment of love and appreciation. For the memory of her earnest life and faithful comradeship remain with us as a benediction.

The keynote of her life was unselfishness—her thought was ever running out to make pleasant paths for others to tread. The warmth of her kindly spirit brought happiness and cheer to every one around her. She sorrowed and joyed with others according as their skies were dark or bright.

And back of her sunny nature what reserves of constancy and strength—how great her courage! Within the past eighteen months she has endured, first, anxiety and then pain, almost to the breaking point, but always there was the brave smile and the hopeful word for those who came to comfort her, and who went away comforted themselves.

The meaning of her life might be summed up in one word: helpfulness. Optimistic by nature she was buoyant in spirit while steadfast in purpose. Her convictions and beliefs were not misty and vague, but were real and vivid. There was in her a certain poise which was a definite support and stimulus to those about her. As though to enrich an already well rounded personality, her spirit of unassuming simplicity was backed by sterling qualities no less than by sympathetic impulses.

All down these years of devotion the many who loved her, and their number is legion, have cheered her by their affection and confidence and have found, in time, fuller measure of love poured into their own cups.

Only here and there is one found who is so deeply impressed upon the hearts of others—one who, by some sweet persuasiveness or loyal friendship or blameless life has found the way into the inner shrine of other lives.

VOTING IN MONTANA CITIES.

Bertha M. Clay

By WALT MASON.

Poor Bertha's gone to glory, she died a month ago; no more she'll write the story of heartache, love and woe, the story sweet and tender of maids and wedding rings, for now in realms of splendour she's trying out her wings.

I thought she was a maiden with old style cork-screw curls, with beads and earrings laden, like other ancient girls; but now the truth is printed since Bertha home was called; her nose was crimson tinted, and she was slightly bald! Upon her face and body high life had left its scars, for Bertha liked her toddy, and Bertha smoked cigars! On earth no human gazer beheld her in a gown, she used a safety razor to keep her whiskers down. With other mild carousers she liked a quiet game, and Bertha's chums wore trousers and Bertha did the same. The novelist of promise pursued deceitful plan; her given name was Thomas—and Bertha was a man! With this fact as a starter we will not show surprise on learning that Nick Carter is a grandma in disguise!

Frederick D. Monk.

Frederick D. Monk, who has just retired from Canadian public life on account of ill health, was born in Montreal April 6, 1856. He is a law graduate of McGill university, and was called to the bar in 1878. He has been a conspicuous figure in Canadian politics in 1896, in which year he was first elected to the house of commons. He soon became prominent in the conservative party and was recognized as the chief lieutenant for Quebec. He sprang into particular prominence by reason of his determined opposition to the Laurier naval policy. When the conservative party under Premier Borden succeeded to power Mr. Monk became minister of public works and proved an able administrator of that department during the year that he held the position. In the autumn of 1912 ill health caused him to resign as minister and now his resignation from parliament is taken to mean that he has retired permanently from public life.

WOMEN TO HAVE LARGE PLACE IN ILLINOIS CENTENNIAL

Purpose is to Show Something of the Progress Made in Woman's Domain During the One Hundred Years of Statehood.

Springfield, Ill., April 6.—The Illinois Centennial Commission will be asked to broaden the scope of the coming celebration of the state centennial so as to include a striking demonstration of the tremendous progress made by women and in women's domain in the one hundred years of statehood.

Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Chicago, a well known woman attorney and leader in the "feminist" movement, has sent an appeal to Senator C. S. Hearn, chairman of the Centennial Commission, for recognition of the women. In her communication she says:

"I hope that your committee that is arranging for the celebration of the one-hundredth anniversary of the admission of Illinois to the union is planning to show the great progress that has been made not only in general lines of manufacturing, agriculture, commerce, etc., but also the great progress made in woman's domain—the home—and also the vast changes that have occurred in the one hundred years in the laws relating to women."

"While you and I have not always agreed as to further extension of woman's rights, I am sure that you and I can agree that women have much cause for gratitude over the many just laws that men have given them during the last one hundred years."

be a valuable paper for the future historian and would, probably, also be of great interest to more backward states."

At the April meeting of the Centennial Commission, it is likely that the matter will be brought before the members in an official way and a decision had as to whether the exploitation of the last one hundred years of progress in woman's domain shall be one of the features of the elaborate Centennial Celebration that is being planned.

A committee of prominent women of the state, headed by Mrs. Jessie Palmer (Weber) of Springfield has been placed in charge of the women's part of the centennial observance and the question of having a distinct women's department may be given over to them to decide.

ELECTION IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., April 6.—Following an exciting and bitter campaign the voters of Montreal, including several thousand women, went to the polls today to elect a mayor and members of the board of aldermen. The final results of the balloting are awaited with intense interest, partly because of the importance of some of the issues involved and also because of the charges of extensive graft and of the mismanagement of city affairs that have been made openly in the campaign. An extensive probe into civil deals and the situation with regards to the water supply are the main questions at issue. The fight for the mayoralty is between Alderman McBeth, who has a large French following, and G. W. Stephens, former chairman of the harbor board, who has the indorsement of the Citizens' association.

ROCKEFELLER JR., IS CROSS-EXAMINED

JOHN D.'S SON TESTIFIES BEFORE HOUSE MINES COMMITTEE.

During More Than Four Hours of Cross Examination Rockefeller Testifies About Moral Responsibility for Industrial Strife in the Coal Fields of Southern Colorado.

Washington, April 6.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., son of the richest man in the world, testified today before the house mines committee about the question of his moral responsibility for the industrial strife which has kept the coal fields of Southern Colorado in turmoil for six months. After more than four hours of cross examination, Mr. Rockefeller had told the committee:

That he and three other directors represented his father's interest about forty per cent in the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, central figure in the big coal strike.

That as a director he had fulfilled all of his interest and responsibility in the company when he placed the officers, "competent men" in charge of the company's affairs.

That he knew nothing of conditions in the strike district except from reports from the officers of the company.

That the strike had become a fight for the "principles" of freedom of labor and that he and his associates would rather that the present violence continue, "and that they lose all of their millions invested in the coal fields than American workmen should be deprived of the right under the constitution to work for whom they pleased."

That he favored arbitration in industrial disputes generally, but that in the present instance he supported the officers of the company in their refusal to submit the question of unionizing the mines to arbitration. In support of these conclusions Mr. Rockefeller was kept busy for hours explaining, defending and arguing.

He declared that employer and employee were fellowmen and should treat each other as such, but could see difference between the organizing of workmen and the combination of capital. He told the committee that his conscience acquitted him of having done his full duty in regard to the big coal diggers, by placing competent men in authority over them and leaving responsibility to those men.

Members of the committee spoke of Mr. Rockefeller's interest and work in various "uplift movements" and asked why he had not gone about welfare work in the Colorado coal fields in a similar way.

"I did just exactly as I have done in all of my investigations," he said. "I picked out the best qualified men I could find, placed them in charge and trusted them to do their best."

No amount of cross-examination could shake his statement. As the hearing drew to a close Mr. Rockefeller said he would consider arbitration of the dispute in the Colorado field if he could be assured a fair and unbiased board of arbitration could be secured. He suggested federal judges as the best qualified to serve on such a board.

EXPECT DEMOCRAT TO BE ELECTED.

Boston, April 6.—The campaign in the Twelfth congressional district of Massachusetts closed today. Tomorrow a special election will be held to select a successor to James M. Curley, who resigned his seat to become mayor of Boston. The district is strongly Democratic and the election of James A. Gallivan, the Democratic candidate, is generally conceded. Mr. Gallivan is opposed by Frank L. Brier, Republican, and James B. Connolly, Progressive.

PROGRESSIVE SLOWING DOWN OF BUSINESS IS CARRIED FURTHER

Price Movements on Stock Exchange Are Narrow and Market is at a Standstill Much of the Time.

New York, April 6.—The progressive slowing down of business on the stock exchange was carried further today and much of the time the market was at a standstill. Price movements were narrow and in only a few cases did they vary a point from Saturday's close.

In spite of the small amount of buying there was still apparent the scarcity of stocks which has been a noticeable feature of the market for some time. To satisfy the scattering buying orders toward the close the list eased off slightly. Total transactions were not far above the 100,000 mark.

Almost the only evidence of public interest lay in the sustained inquiry for high grade bonds. Accumulation of idle money here, which is largely the outgrowth of sluggish business conditions has progressed to a point where a large volume of funds is seeking employment.

CHANCES THAT CROP REPORT WILL PROVE FLATTERING LOWERS WHEAT

Bulls Urge in Vain That Consumption Has Been in Progress at a Rate Never Before Equalled.

Chicago, April 6.—Chances that the government crop report tomorrow will prove of the most flattering sort tended today to lower the price of wheat. The market closed easy at 1/2c to 3/4c net decline. Corn finished with a gain of 1/2c to 3/4c; oats up 1/4c to 1/2c and provisions varying from a shade off to 5c advance.

It was in vain the bulls urged that the knowledge of nearly perfect crop conditions and of big acreage had hung over the wheat market for sixty days, that fully three months would elapse before another harvest in any part of the world and that consumption has been in progress at a rate never before equalled.

Despite free offerings from Argentina all along the coast from the St. Lawrence to Texas the corn market here turned strong.

Wet weather that meant delay for seeding brought independent firmness to oats.

Provisions rallied on account of a fair demand from the south. At the outset however, the market seemed to be headed down grade in sympathy with a break in the price of hogs.

TWO NERVOUS WOMEN

Made Well By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headaches, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness."

"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."—Mrs. MARY JOHNSTON, 210 Siegel Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Bad Case.
Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysterical spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORNBERGER, R. No. 2, Ephrata, Pa.

THE GENERAL SCHOOL LAW.

There seems to be some desire for a statement of the law relating to the pending school election.

The Charter of the City of Jacksonville was by a special act passed by the legislature of 1867 and amended in 1869. Article 13 of that act provided for "an effective system of graded schools." These schools are to be "under the exclusive control and management of a board of education to consist of the mayor of the city, who shall be the president of the board, and one from each ward of the city." "The president shall only vote in case of a tie when he shall have a casting vote."

"The members of the board of education, representing the different wards, shall hereafter be elected by the people at the city election of city officers and after the first election of the board of education, that two members thereof shall be elected each year in conformity with this amendment."

Following this there was a new constitution adopted, known as the constitution of 1870, and following that a general law for the incorporation of cities and villages was passed and that general law was adopted by the City of Jacksonville at an election held April 4, 1887. After a time the differences in opinions held as to the legal status of the schools resulted in a petition in quo warranto being filed and the decision of the supreme court may be found in the case of Smith vs. The People, 154 Ill. 58, filed October 30, 1894. The opinion is long but the substance of it may be given by copying from the syllabus, which reads in part, as follows: "The adoption by a city of the general law for the incorporation of cities and villages, which has no relation to schools, does not abrogate provisions in such city's former special charter for the establishment and management of a system of schools, such provisions not being inconsistent with anything in said general law."

"The adoption of minority representation in a city council pursuant to the general law, which throws the election of the city officers in to every second year, does not abrogate a provision of the special charter of such city that members of the board of education shall be elected annually."

This stood the law when the new law creating a commission form of government and providing that such form might be adopted by cities and villages by vote of the electors was enacted. This law was adopted by the electors of this city and the present city council was elected in conformity therewith. By that law wards are abolished, elections are held only once in four years and important changes are made in the method of procedure of the city council in matters relating to ordinances.

But, by section 23 of said act, it is specifically provided: "that nothing contained in this act shall in any way extend or pertain to or affect any public school law in operation in any municipality which may adopt this act, anything in this present act contained to the contrary notwithstanding."

The effect, then of the commission form of government does not in any way curtail the freedom of the city council to carry out the provisions of the special charter in conformity with the law as the supreme court had declared it to be.

The impression prevails in some quarters that the election of a board of education having the powers of boards of education elected under the free school law will operate to transfer the school property, real estate, to the township trustees.

While there is a bit of ground here that may be disputable, let us assume that the effect will be to place the legal title to the real estate in the township trustees.

This legal title is held in trust. The trustees are required to do concerning it as directed, as follows:

Chapter 122, section 1115, provides that the board of directors in districts having a population less than one thousand shall, among other things, "have control and supervision of all public school houses in their district."

Section 40, provides: "When a school site of building has become unnecessary or unsuitable or inconvenient for a school, the trustees of schools, on petition of a majority of the voters of the district, shall sell and convey the same," then follows the method of advertising and sale."

Section 127 provides: "The board of education shall have all the powers of school directors, be subject to the same limitations, and in addition thereto they shall have the power, and it shall be their duty: Thirteenth—To request the trustees of schools in writing to convey any real estates or interest therein used for school purposes, or held in trust for schools."

Fifth—"To buy or lease sites for school houses with necessary grounds." Then follows a proviso that a vote of the district shall be necessary to authorize the board of education to buy or change a school house site or build a school house.

That is to say: The board of education will have complete custody and control of the school property, limited only by the vote of the electors of the district, which is the city. The question has been raised as to the number of members to be elected to a board of education under the general free school law. Chapter 122, Section 123 provides that in districts having a population of not fewer than one thousand and not more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, there shall be elected a board of education to consist of a president, six members and three additional members for every additional ten thousand inhabitants: Provided, however, that in no case shall such board consist of more than fifteen members.

By section 128 it is provided that "In cities having a population exceeding 100,000 inhabitants, the board of education shall consist of twenty-one members, to be appointed by the mayor, by and with the advice and consent of the common council," etc.

It is the rule in construing statutes that effect shall be given to every word and phrase according to the ordinary meaning of the language employed, wherever such course is possible. Unless the language "and three additional members for every additional ten thousand and inhabitants," shall be understood to mean to be additional to some number less than 100,000. The law provides for a board of twenty-one members to be appointed in any district having more than 100,000 inhabitants. The language "and three additional members for every additional ten thousand inhabitants," seems, therefore, to be limited in its application to those districts having a population of one thousand and not more than 100,000 inhabitants. Then the additional ten thousand must be additional to some number less than 100,000.

The only indication of the number to which the ten thousand shall be additional lies in the fact that a district having a population not fewer than one thousand has a board consisting of a president and six members. It seems to the writer to be obvious that the meaning of the language is that there shall be three additional members for each ten thousand additional to the primary number sufficient to authorize the election of a president and six members.

HEARING ON TRADE PACES.

Washington, April 6.—The commission on industrial relations, appointed by President Wilson last June in accordance of an act of congress, met in this city today to begin the first of its public hearings. The object of the commission, broadly stated, is to investigate the relations existing between employers and employees in the principal American industries and report on a plan to make those relations more harmonious.

The hearing will include systematic efforts at peaceable settlement of disputes in the coal mining industry, the railroads, the clothing industry, the printing trades, the building trades and molders' trade. Among those who will be summoned to testify are President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor; President John P. White of the United Mine Workers of America; President Seth Low of the National Civic Federation; President Daniel Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad; C. P. Neill of New York, former federal commissioner of labor, and James M. Lynch, commissioner of labor of the state of New York.

NEW JERSEY AND THE TARIFF.

Paterson, N. J., April 6.—Much interest is manifested in the special election to be held in the Seventh congressional district tomorrow to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Bremner. Four parties are represented in the race. The result is considered doubtful. The district is a manufacturing center and the result is expected to reflect the sentiment in regards to the new tariff. The Republicans have endeavored to keep the tariff issue to the front in the campaign. Representative Bremner was a Democrat and should the district elect a Republican as his successor the result naturally would be quoted against the Wilson administration. The candidates are: James J. O'Byrne, Democrat; Dow H. Drucker, Republican; Henry A. Whitehead, Progressive, and Gordon Demarest, Socialist.

RECORD HERALD CUTS OUT LIQUOR ADVERTISING

Chicago Paper Makes Statement to The Effect That It Will No More Make Such Contracts.

The Sunday edition of the Chicago Record-Herald contained the following announcement:

The Record-Herald has decided to eliminate liquor advertising from its columns. It will fulfill its existing contracts to print this class of advertising and having done that it will accept no more.

In making this announcement The Record-Herald desires to be rightly understood. The manufacture and sale of liquor are sanctioned by law and the advertising is legitimate advertising. However, printing this class of advertising involves social questions that call for emphasis and increased consideration.

The Record-Herald goes into many thousands of homes. In virtually all of these homes there is an abiding sense of the need of protection against the abuses of the liquor traffic, especially for the young. In a constantly increasing degree there is abstention from the use of liquor for the sake of the young. There is the haunting fear that from the first indulgence the young and unformed character may unconsciously drift into an uncontrolled and destructive habit of excess.

Liquor advertising does not discriminate between use and abuse. It commends without reserve what the best social sense of the day more and more disapproves as dangerous.

The Record-Herald does not deny the view that pure alcoholic liquors have their wise and proper use in individual instances, but contends that the responsibility for the advocacy of such use should rest with the family physician rather than the family newspaper, and declines henceforth to share this responsibility.

How Villa's Rebel Soldiers Tear Up Mexican Railroad Tracks.

The Mexican railroads are in a deplorable condition owing to the destructive tactics of General Villa's rebels. One road alone has lost more than seventy bridges. The illustration shows how the Constitutionalist tear up tracks. A chain is passed under the rails and connected with an engine by an iron rod. The engine is then backed and up come tracks and ties in a twisted mass of useless debris.

COUNCIL ASKED TO REMOVE ALL LIQUOR SIGNS IN CITY

Report on Auto Fire Truck Bids Deferred to Later Meeting—Firemen in Light Plant to Have More Pay—Officers Reports Are Approved.

At the city council session Monday morning the ordinance calling an election for April 21, on the adoption of a general school law was passed. Commissioner Engel was allowed more time for presenting recommendations on acceptance of a fire truck bid, and some minor matters of business were given consideration.

After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, a communication was presented signed by Mrs. Sarah Cocking and other officers of the W. C. T. U., asking that the council cause the removal of various beer and whisky signs around the city which have remained from the days of the saloons. Mayor Davis said that the clerk would write to the ladies and inform them that the council would take such action if could be shown that the law gave them authority to do so. The ordinance for vacating certain land in Diamond Grove cemetery so that it may be used for burial purposes was adopted.

Action on Auto Truck Bids Deferred—Commissioner Engel asked for and was granted more time for making a report upon the bids recently opened for an auto chemical fire truck. He said that he expected to take all the bids and consult with some one out of town who had no interest in the matter but who was thoroughly posted on apparatus of this kind. He said he would expect to be ready to report by next Monday and if he was ready before that time would ask for a special meeting of the council.

Commissioner Knollenberg asked what Mr. Newman had to report concerning the city dumping grounds. Mr. Newman said that on account of the condition of the roads he had been prevented from visiting the property although he had looked up the records to some extent but did not have all the data that he wished for a report.

Commissioner Brennan stated that the ordinance did not provide a large enough monthly salary for firemen in the light plant to permit of his securing the right kind of men. The pay now is $50 a month, the men working eight hours, seven days in the week. He lost one man the past week and has trouble right along. On the order of the mayor the matter was referred to the city attorney to draw a new ordinance and include the suggestions made by Mr. Brennan. The Railway & Light Company pays from $50 to $75 per month for the same kind of work. The ordinance making provision for voting upon the question of adopting the general school law on April 21st, at the same time that members of the board of education were chosen was adopted. Commissioner Knollenberg voted no.

The polling places, officials and voting places, for this election are as follows:

FEATHERS MAY SOLVE DEATH.

Lexington, Ky., April 6.—Powder burns upon feathers of one fowl and lack of such marks on feather of another are expected to play an important part in the investigation into the death of Mrs. Laura Wilder Simpson by the grand jury which convened today. Mrs. Simpson, a bride of a few weeks, was shot to death Feb. 22 with a revolver belonging to her husband. It is still to be proved whether she was murdered or shot herself. Two coroner's juries failed to return a verdict. Subsequently the body was examined for examination. Dr. W. H. Wilder of Chicago, father of the victim, has expressed himself as convinced that his daughter met death through an accident. The grand jury investigation is to be made largely at the request of Mrs. Simpson's husband, a wealthy turfman of this city, who says he desires to remove any suspicion from himself.

ARTISTS' COURSE CLOSES

AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Miss Carol Robinson Head in Splendid Piano Recital—Mrs. Grace Wood Jess, Soprano, Detained at Home by Illness.

The Artists' course at Woman's college, came to a close Monday night, when Miss Carol Robinson was heard in a splendid piano recital. Mrs. Grace W. Jess, soprano, of Springfield who was to have shared with Miss Robinson in the program was unable to be present on account of an attack of tonsillitis. Her absence was much of a disappointment to the audience as Mrs. Jess has been heard in concert by Jacksonville people on several occasions, with much pleasure.

It was a delight to hear Miss Robinson and she gave an evening of music that was greatly enjoyed. She is an assistant to Mrs. Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler, the well known pianist of Chicago. Miss Robinson has a sure and well developed technique and her work is of the clean cut variety. She possesses that poetic nature, so essential to interpreting and it was evident that she thoroughly understood the meaning of the authors. (Especially was her work pleasing in the Mac Dowell numbers.)

Her program follows:

EASTER WEEK SERVICES.

AT CENTENARY CHURCH

The inclement weather cut down the attendance at the special services at Centenary M. E. church last night. Rev. G. W. Flagg took for his subject, "Welding the Scepter," his text being Psalm 2-6, "Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion." For two days Christ experienced the right of a King. The cursing of the fig tree was an example of his kingly power of condemnation and his act of cleansing the temple, his kingly power in purifying worship in the church.

The subject for tonight will be: "By Divine Right."

At the close of the morning service at Central Christian church Sunday, the Rev. Clyde Darsie presented his resignation as pastor, to take effect on or before July 1, 1914. Rev. Mr. Darsie has accepted a call to the Christian church of Mt. Sterling, Ky., a city in the Blue Grass region, thirty miles west of Lexington. The church at Mt. Sterling is a prosperous one and although the members of Central Christian church are sorry to see him go, they will extend their pastor congratulations upon a call to the leadership of a growing, thriving congregation. The Christian church at Mt. Sterling is the largest church in the city and has a large country membership. Rev. Mr. Darsie has formed many friends during his stay in the city and it is not only members of his own congregation who will regret to see him and Mrs. Darsie leave Jacksonville.

Rev. Mr. Darsie came to this city from Quincy. He received his collegiate training at Bethany college, and went from there to Oregon, Mo., where he held his first pastorate. Later, he was for some time an advanced student at the University of Chicago. From the university he went to Pueblo, Colo., and thence to Bowling Green, Oo., from where he was called to take a charge at Quincy.

The contract between Rev. Mr. Darsie and Central Christian church requires a notice of three months before the severing of pastoral relations, but as the church at Mt. Sterling is desirous of the services of a pastor at the earliest possible moment, the church here has been requested to release him. There will be a meeting of the congregation next Wednesday after prayer-meeting when the matter will be considered.

There was lately a revival at the Kentucky church which measurably increased its membership, the Mt. Sterling congregation numbering now about 700. The Sunday school and men's class are almost equal to the similar organizations of the church in this city. The pulpit of the Kentucky church was left vacant by the death last December of the Rev. H. D. Clark, who was pastor for twenty six years. Almost four months without a pastor and the increase in membership by the revival in the meantime have made the Mt. Sterling people very anxious that a minister be secured at once.

Nothing has as yet been done toward the securing of Rev. Mr. Darsie's successor. There will no doubt be a number of applications for the position as Central Christian church is among the largest Christian churches in the state of Illinois with a pastorate, of course, among the most desirable.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. (Adv.)
